Brammer@rllaz.com

Bill solves client problems in both complex transactions and litigation, and also is a seasoned mediator and arbitrator.

For more than 50 years, Bill's involvement with law and the legal practice, including more than 15 years as a Judge of the Arizona Court of Appeals, gives him the extensive background, knowledge, and experience needed to provide his clients with objective and thoughtful advice to resolve their issues on the trial and appellate level.

He handles real estate and business transactions, their financing and any related litigation. Bill has represented developers and builders in financing, construction, operation and sale of their products - apartments, single-family houses, condominiums and office complexes - including related litigation. He also has negotiated and documented multi-million dollar property construction, acquisition financing, business loans and complex business transactions.

Bill handles education law and civil rights defense, business entity formation, and helps individual clients with estate and succession planning. Bill has provided governmental entities legal support, including advising governing boards on a myriad of legal issues, and prosecuting and defending eminent domain actions. He is a knowledgeable, thoughtful, and experienced mediator and arbitrator.
