Ashley Naff joined RL&L with litigation savvy and a client-centered approach

Prior to joining RL&L, Ashley served as a Deputy District Attorney in California, prosecuting a wide variety of misdemeanor and felony level crimes. In this role, Ashley conducted numerous jury and bench trials, wrote and argued motions in court, and worked extensively with victims and witnesses. In 2021, she was recognized for her trial work, and awarded the Robert L. Webb Award for Trial Advocacy.

Ashley is not only an accomplished litigator, but also a compassionate advocate for her clients. She understands that navigating the legal system can be overwhelming, and she prides herself on ensuring that her clients are informed and supported throughout the legal process.
